

September 15, 2019

PLANTATION SERVICES, INC.

For immediate release:

Plantation Services is pleased to announce the association of Thomas P. Anderson as Senior Vice President and advisor to the firm. Tom joins Plantation Services after an extensive career in banking, finance, real estate and investment management. He most recently retired as CEO of the Medical University of South Carolina Foundation after previously serving in various executive positions at Bank of America in South Carolina.

Chip Hall, president of Plantation Services, said “Tom brings a wealth of experience to the firm. His passion for the outdoors, hunting and fishing, as well as his executive experience fit nicely with our sales philosophy and strategic plan.”

Plantation Services is based in Charleston, South Carolina and Albany, Georgia and has served the Southeastern, United States in the sale of plantations and other special properties since 1959.

Contact: Plantation Services
843.958.0222
for additional Information.

